

I do not want the banks to be able to call my home just because I do business with them. If I need to speak to them, I will call them. Please do not allow them to change the existing law concerning Indiana's Do Not Call List.